The perfect location

Priors Hall Park sits amid the rolling Northamptonshire countryside. Here, a connected community awaits, with walking trails on your doorstep, active resident groups, and green spaces that bring neighbours together—offering space, comfort and a true sense of place.

Priors Hall Park is a thriving development set to span 907 acres, already enriched with green spaces and useful local amenities. Enjoy a coffee at the community café, meet friends at the amphitheatre, or make the most of the outdoors with play areas for children and sports pitches perfect for keeping active.

When you're ready to explore further, a wealth of countryside and attractions are close by. King's Wood Nature Reserve is just a 15-minute drive away, offering ancient woodland, diverse wildlife and over 250 plant species. Fineshade Woods is also 15-minutes drive away and offers cycle trails, family-friendly walking paths, and kids' playgrounds. Corby Central Park and Boating Lake provides peaceful gardens and picnic spots, while East Carlton Country Park delivers 102 acres of woodland, walking routes and family-friendly activities. For a touch of history, Kirby Hall and Deene Park are within minutes, and Rutland Water Country Park offers trails, cycling, fishing and watersports just under 18 miles away.

Everyday essentials are also close at hand. A Sainsbury's Local is a short walk from the development, while Corby town centre is just eight minutes by car or a short bus ride. Here, you'll find independent eateries, cafés and a wide choice of shops at Willow Place Shopping Centre.

Families are well catered for, with several 'Good' and 'Outstanding' Ofsted-rated primary and secondary schools within the catchment area, including Corby Primary Academy, Corby Technical School, Corby Business Academy and Stanion C of E Primary School. The Universities of Leicester and Northampton are also easily reached by car.
